Case Studies

Challenge

NASA provides rich open APIs but lacks user-friendly interfaces. Complex astronomical data is inaccessible to general users.

SOLUTION

We built a real-time space exploration app that:

- Maps exoplanets using NASA APIs
- Tracks celestial positions in the night sky
- Simplifies astrophysics into intuitive visuals

Key Features:

- Live exoplanet tracker
- Night sky visualization (user location-based)
- Data-driven UI from NASA APIs
- Educational overlays

93%

Lorem Ipsum is simply dummy text of the printing and typesetting industry.

Global nominee of "Best Use of Technology":

- Integrated multiple NASA open APIs
- Transformed raw data into interactive UI
- Delivered real-time astronomical visualization which was the actual gap we've addressed for space knowledge awareness
